SYNOD 2023-2024: At his Angelus message on Sunday 16th October, the Holy Father spoke the following:

On 10 October last year, the first phase opened of the XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops on the theme, "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, Mission". Since then, the first phase of the Synod is being carried out in the local Churches through listening and discernment. The fruits of the synodal process underway are many, but so that they might come to full maturity, it is necessary not to be in a rush. Therefore, in order to have a more relaxed period of discernment, I have established that this Synodal Assembly will take place in two sessions. The first from 4th to 29th October 2023, and the second in October of 2024. I trust that this decision will promote the understanding of synodality as a constitutive dimension of the Church and help everyone to live it as the journey of brothers and sisters who proclaim the joy of the Gospel.

Christmas Message 2022 from Archbishop Bernard Longley: Traditionally Christmas is a time for the exchange of gifts – although this year some gifts may take longer to arrive because of the postal strike – and one very welcome gift for everybody affected would be a just resolution to the various disputes over pay and working conditions. Recent strikes remind us of all the uncertainty that so many of us feel about the future because of inflation and rising fuel and food bills. It's been much more of a struggle for families to make ends meet and find gifts for each other this Christmas. Peace of mind in place of anxiety would be a welcome gift in many homes. Choosing the right gift for a friend or loved one is less important than the friendship or love that it represents. At Christmas we celebrate the greatest gift possible – the birth of a child – and this gift comes from the God whose name is love. The birth of Jesus Christ is the greatest sign of God's love for every living being. The season of good will is also a time when we feel our losses most keenly – especially the loss of loved ones who would have shared this festival with us. The death of Queen Elizabeth reminded us that our feelings of loss are another expression of our love. This Christmas we remember and pray especially for the families of the four children who lost their lives so recently in Birmingham. May the child born at Bethlehem give them comfort and strength to face the coming year. The deepest longings of our hearts find their fulfilment in the gift of Christ's birth. Christmas celebrates God's love for the world he made. May you and all those close to you be richly blessed by the gift of one another and the love of Christ this Christmas.
